ELECTION OF THE CHAIR AND CO-CHAIR AT CSCDGR'S BOARD OF TRUSTEES' ANNUAL ORGANISATIONAL MEETING

Timmins, November 22, 2024 – During the Conseil scolaire catholique des Grandes Rivières' Board of Trustees' Annual Organisational meeting, held this Tuesday, November 21st 2024, the trustees gathered, in order to, amongst other agenda items, elect the Chair and Co-Chair of the Board for the year 2024-2025.

The elected members expressed their confidence in Roger Grégoire, who was elected by acclamation as Chair of the CSCDGR. Gilles Audet, the out-going Co-Chair, chose not to seek re-election. Léon Grégoire was elected by acclamation to assume the role of Co-Chair for the coming year.

Following his election, the President, Mr. Grégoire, expressed his gratitude to his colleagues in a brief speech. He added a few words of encouragement about the work that awaits them, and he closed his remarks by stating: "It is by respecting one another that we will be able to accomplish all of our dreams, while having fun and keeping our smiles."

Jérémie Lepage, who presented his first annual report as CSCDGR's Director of Education and Secretary-Treasurer during this organisational meeting, congratulated the members elected as Chair and Co-Chair: "The trustees play such a fundamental role. I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Roger Grégoire and Gilles Audet for their work and effort throughout the past year. I would also like to offer my congratulations to Roger and Léon Grégoire for being selected as Chair and Co-Chair, and to offer them a heartfelt thank you for the significant service they are providing to our school community by taking on this important role of leading our Board of Trustees."

The CSCDGR is confident in the continued leadership of its Board of Trustees and looks forward to another year of collaboration and progress under the guidance of its Chair and Co-Chair.
